52 Years Advancing Justice in Maryland

Greetings!

Today starts the 446th session of the Maryland General Assembly, the Women's Law Center of Maryland (WLC) is thrilled to kick off another year of advocacy, empowerment, and progress. With a 52-year legacy of advancing justice, we enter this session determined to safeguard the rights and well-being of women in our state.

Our commitment to legislative advocacy remains steadfast as we focus on bills impacting Maryland women's physical safety, economic security, and bodily autonomy. From the Fight for Fifteen to the ending of marital status as a defense against sexual assault and the ongoing fight to secure reproductive rights, the Women's Law Center of Maryland is unwavering in our dedication to gender justice.

Your Voice is Key to Shaping Policy

Legislative alerts will be packed with essential information on bill hearings and votes. We keep it simple. Providing you with the need-to-know information: timelines, bill details, and the contact information of legislators who need to hear from you. Your actions- by phone or email, make a difference on the decisions made in Annapolis.

Whether you're a seasoned subscriber to our legislative alerts or a WLC member contemplating taking the plunge, your involvement is crucial. Every call is noted, and every email is read by legislative staffers. Your opinion could be the catalyst that tips the scales and changes a vote that advances justice for women.

We are humbled to do this work and are grateful for your presence and
